

I am totally opposed to allowing Verizon or any other company being able to gain complete control of Internet access. I'm completely happy with my ISP and I should be allowed to continue to use its services. Granting the requested petition would also cause the loss of jobs. Thank you.